

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BUREAU OF MEDICINE AND SURGERY
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20372

IN REPLY REFER TO

Public Affairs Office
Bureau of Medicine and Surgery
Department of the Navy
Washington, D.C. 20372

For Immediate Release
27 August 1980
80-10

Contact: LT Patricia M. Pallas
(202) 254-4336

REAR ADMIRAL JAMES D. ENOCH, DC, USN
NEW CHIEF OF NAVY DENTAL CORPS

In August 17 ceremonies at the Washington Navy Yard, Washington, DC Rear Admiral James D. Enoch, DC, USN, became the Chief of the Navy Dental Corps, and Assistant Chief for Dentistry of the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery..

Rear Admiral Enoch relieved Rear Admiral Paul E. Farrell, DC, USN, who retired after serving in this position since 1978.

Rear Admiral Enoch previously served as the Inspector General, Dental, Bureau of Medicine and Surgery, Washington, DC.

As Chief of the Navy Dental Corps, RADM Enoch will be responsible for directing, developing, supervising, and coordinating all dental programs, and for continual appraisal of all programs for which he has cognizance. He has management responsibilities for approximately 1680 dental corps officers and 3400 dental technicians currently in the Navy. Also under his area of responsibility are approximately 23 Naval Regional Dental Clinics.

Rear Admiral Enoch graduated from Vanderbilt University with a B.A. degree in Business Administration and from the University of Tennessee with a D.D.S. degree. He also has completed the course in General Postgraduate Dentistry at the Naval Dental

(more)

Press Release #80-10
page 2

School, Bethesda, MD. and received the M.S. degree from the University of Michigan in Operative Dentistry.

Rear Admiral Enoch is married to the former Frances Alyne Wilson of Memphis, Tennessee. They have one son, Mark Wilson Enoch, who resides in Nashville, Tennessee.

* * * * *